A BAD GANG CAPTURED

They Had Intended to Hold Up a Railroad Train.

A DETECTIVE LET INTO THE PLOT.

Up, but Pot Officers on Their Track, and Two of the Gaog Are Now in ST JOSEPH, Mo Oct 3 -Lee Jones and "Scar Faced" Charley Frizzell were arrested here, charged with conspiracy to rob the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific train. The conspirators were betrayed by one of their own band. A week ago it was planned to rob a west bound Rock Island train and to blow it up if becessary This was postponed and finally abandoned, the would be robbers learning that the police were after them. The arrests followed, and others are expected.

Since the attempt made about a month ago to rob the Denver express the officers of the road have been looking for the men concerned in the enterprise Suspicion pointed to "a long baired crook from the Indian Territory" as the prime mover. Chief Special Agent Martin H. Flynn, of the Rock Island went to St Joseph and was not long in identifying the "long baired crook," with Jones, who had re-cently arrived from the Indian Territory and carried his character in his face. He was a blustering bully with no visible means of support and with a habit of frequenting saloons and associating with desperate characters. Among his asso-ciates was Lee Frizzell and a man named Callahan, who a few days after the arrival of the railroad officer was arrested by the local officials on the charge of burglary and was lodged in jail. It was learned that the trio bad instigated the former attempt, and that Jones and Frizzell had not abandoned hopes of ulti-mately gaining possession of the treasure in the express and mail cars.

Special Agent Flynn returned to Chicago, and on Sept. 9 a meeting of railroad officials was held in the office of General Manager W. I. Allen. As a result of the meeting Detective C. C. Barshard took a a train for St Joseph, and in the guise of a Chicago crook went to the Buffalo Head saloon, a resort much frequented by Jones, Frizzell and similar characters. Bar-hard found it an easy matter to gain access to the society circle in which Jones was a shining light, and when on Sept. 17 Flynn, in the guise of a Chicago gambler out of luck, arrived at the Buffalo Head Bar-bard was in a position to introduce Lim. Speaking of the episode Flyon said-

"Jones was a character. He drank freely and talked openly of crime. He was a bideous looking object, six feet tall, broad shouldered and powerful physique. His long black bair, banging from beneath a broad brimmed sombrers, did not conceal any part of the most repulsive buman face I ever saw. An accomplished artist, he would not work, and openly boasted that he would yet out do the exploits of Jesse James Jones had served two terms in the penitentiary for counterfeiting, but had escaped all punishment for a long hat of violations of the state laws. This was the leader of the gang with whom Bar-hard was on friendly terms. Jones was always heavily armed, and would not hesitate to shoot on the slightest provocation. But he was not really a dangerous man, lacking mental force and depending for his reputation on brute courage and

A most dangerous man was Lee Frizzell, also an ex-convict. He was quiet and watchful, and sometimes appeared to suspect that Barshard was not all right. It required much tact to dissipate the fellow's suspicious, but the detective finally succeeded and was taken fully into the confidence of Frizzell and his friend and associate, Franklinburg Barshard was admitted into all the plans of the raid on the train The party was to consist of Jones, Franklinburg, Frizzell, Barshard and two "good people" who were to be on Tuesday evening, Sept. 25, was the time set for the attempt. The Denver express, due in St. Joseph at 7:40 o'clock, was to be intercented at the water tank seven miles east of town. As the locomotive stopped at the water tank one of the bandits was to break the couplings behind the mail and express cars, while the others commanded the engineer to go ahead into a deep cut, half a mile up the track, leaving the passenger coaches behind. In the cut the work of robbing the car was to be completed, four men going through the express and mail cars, while one, armed with a rifle, kept watch on the engineer and tireman.

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT.

People Trampled Under Horses' Feet During Baltimore's Baseball Parade.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 3 - During the baseball procession last night a serious accident occurred, and that it did not result fatally to several persons is only little short of miraculous. When the parade had reached the corner of Lexington and Howard streets, the six horses attached to a heavy bus in which were a large number of people became frightened at the fireworks, and made a plunge into the crowd. The streets at this point were a perfect jam of humanity, wedged in so tightly as to reader it impossible for them to escape. Most of them being women and children made the matter worse. The horses becoming more and more frightened at the screams of the people, reared, plunged and trampled them down to a frightful manner When officers and others had secured the norses and succeeded in getting them off the sidewalk, eleven persons, mostly women and children, were found to be more or less injured

Florence Ingle, aged 15, was taken out from under the horses' feet unconscious. and has since remained in that condition. It is feared her skull is fractured. Henry Kruchen, aged 15, had both his arms so badly crushed that amputation will be necessary These two will probably die.

PAVITUCKET WEAVERS STRIKE

Their Wages Reduced Without the Formatity of Notification.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Oct. 3.-What will in all probability result in the biggest strike of textile workers this city has ever seen was inaugurated resterday when 250 weavers left their looms at the Loraine mills protesting against a reduction in wages. The weavers are employed in what is known as the worsted department, where nearly 700 looms are in opera-The first intimation the employes bad of the reduction was when they received their pay Monday evening. They found that the reduction averaged about 12 per cent | It ranged from five to thirty cents a cut, the difference in prices being on account of different lines of work.

Yesterday a committee of the weavers waited upon Agent McCall, but they re ported that they received no satisfaction out of the interview, hence the entire worsted side is idle. The operatives are firm in their determination to remain out until the justice of their demand is recognized, and 1,300 operatives will be involved within a few days.

A Long Deadlock Broken.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 3 - The deadlock in the Sixteenth congressional district was broken late yesterday afternoon by the selection of Frederic Leonard, one of the conferrees from Potter county, as the Republican nominee The choice was made on the 573d ballot, and in ten minutes after the vote was announced a special train started for Harri-burg to get the certificate of nomination to the state department in time for Leonard's name to appear on the regular ticket. Hopkins, the present incumbent, withdrew several days ago, and Packer and Lewis gave up the straggle yesterday.

Church Fair Lotteries Illegal.

ELIZAPETH, N. J., Oct 3 .- Judge Van Syckie, in the Union county court, charged the grand jary that the practice at church fairs of hobbing drawings for prizes is a violation of the law against lotteries as much an offense as race track pool selling and other gambling. He read a program of a feer held in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church at North Plainfield, at which there were drawings, and charged the parors to investigate it

Republican Victories In Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, Oct 3 .- Returns from 100 towns of Connecticut show unprecedented gains for the Republicans in the town elections. In Waterbury the A. P. A. movement aroused the Catholics, who succeeded in electing an entire school board of Catholics. In New Britain the no license vote of one year ago is reversed. In almost all towns where the A P. A made a fight it met with defeat.

No Vote in Three of Jacksonville's Most · Populous Districts.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 3 -The state and county election held in this city resulted in a tangle which it will probably take the courts to straighten. The fight was between two factions of the Democratic party, and bid fair to be a close one. Early in the morning, in consequence of fraud having been threatened, three deputy sheriffs walked into each polling place and signified their intention of remaining. The inspectors all over the city thereupon closed the voting booths, awaiting instructions from the leaders. A compromise was effected in several of the outlying wards in a short time and voting was resumed, but in three of the most populous wards in the city not a vote was cast, owing to a failure to agree upon any arrangement. In consequence of this tangle, out of a qualified vote of 5,000 in Duval county only a small proportion was polled

Governor Mitchell on Monday ordered Adjutant General Houston to this city, and all day the state troops were held under arms at their quarters, but were not needed, as there was no disorder. The main issue, of the factional fight were a commission and the alleged attempt of a railroad corporation to capture the next legislature, and nowhere has the bitterness grown to such an intensity as in Duval county. Throughout the state Liddor, for supreme court justice, has met with practically no opposition. The Populists cast a very small vote for their ticket.

Governor Werts' Vetoes.

TRENTON, Oct 3 .- The special feature of interest in connection with the reassembling of the New Jersey legislature was the action of the governor in vetoing a batch of bills which were left on his hands when the legislature entered upon its long recess last May. The most important of these bills was the one to abolish the county courts as at present constituted and establish in their place elective courts, removing the lay judges from of-fice altogether. The naturalization bill and the marriage license bill were among

WILD BALTIMOREANS.

Enthusiastic Reception to the Baseball Heroes.

THE WELCOME OF THE "ROOTERS."

A Monster Parade, Led by the Governor of Maryland, a Public Reception and B Banquet to the Pennant Winners of Baltimore, Oct. 3 - Probably never in the history of the national game was there anything in the way of a demonstration to greet the victors approaching the scenes depicted here yesterday. From early morning the streets wore a holiday aspect. Every business house and dwelling along the route of the procession last night, almost without exception, was covered with the orange and black colors of the Orioles. All day long the streets were crowded with an unending stream of humanity, many carrying "penuant" flags, and all wearing Oriole badges. Many staid business men were noticed with the gaudiest of orange and black cravats, each wearing a happy countenance, as if some great personal success had been achieved. Some women were abroad in jackets composed of the Baltimore club's colors. The situation can be briefly stated by saying that Baltimore is baseball wild.

Mingled with the crowds of "rooters" on the streets during the day were scores of fakirs with "rooters' badges," "rooters' canes," "rooters' ties," and in fact about everything that could be utilized as an article of wearing apparel or personal adornment, gotten up with the proper colors, found ready purchasers, and the small boys and others reaped a rich harvest from the sales.

The enthusiasm is not confined to Baltimoreans by any means, as is manifested by the reports from along the entire line of travel through Maryland. At Cumberland, on the arrival of the train bearing the "heroes," the entire city seemed to have turned out to welcome them. The mayor of that place headed a delegation of business men, and waited on Manager Hanlon and the team to thank the Orioles on the great victory they had accomplished.

The reception at Hagerstown and all other points along the journey through Maryland was a repetition of the Cumterland greeting. As an evidence of the extent to which the ladies of the state shared in the "rooting" the boys brought back with them half a carload of souvenirs in the way of slippers, necktie cases, and all such products of feminine hands These were handed in at each stop made The enthusiasm exhibited during the day in Baltimore was but mild to that of last night, when the 'beroes' themselves arrived. The scene at Camden station when their train pulled in was one of the maddest ever witnessed in Baltimore. As the Orioles filed out of the beautifully decorated special car, preceded by the committee of citizens who had gone to Washington to meet and escort the team to this city, there was one long cheer from the thousands of throats. This was followed by a throwing up of hats, canes and handkerchiefs and a general scrambling to get near the birds, and if possible to grasp one of the players by the hand.

The procession of the night was such, both from a point of length and interesting features, as but few have seen. It was participated in by delegates from nearly every town in Maryland.

Governor Frank Brown was the most con-picuous "rooter" in the first carriage, ju-t in advance of the ones containing Baltimore's idols Others in carriages were Mayor Latrobe, ex-Postmaster Johnson, and, in fact, hearly every prominent man in the city. As the carriages containing the Orioles came along the street the tooting of horns, cheering of the vast multitude, ringing of bells, together with the constant noise caused by firing rock ets, etc., caused a racket that will long live in every Baltimorean's memory.

Prominent through the entire parade were displayed transparencies with such inscriptions as "Get at 'emi" "Did you ever see such little giants?" "What did 'Robbie' do to them?' and scores of others in a similar strain. One delegation from Hagerstown exhibited a float composed of a cage in which a large live bog looked knowingly at the crowd and grunted its approval or disapproval of its novel quar-

The procession occupied nearly three hours in passing a given point, and during all this time enthusiasts were noticed banging on to telegraph poles, cross arms and from awning rods with as much fervor as when the procession first approached, to make sure that they missed no item of interest to be seen in this, the most glorious reception ever tendered a baseball team of its triumphant arrival home. After the procession had gone through the principal streets of the city they headed for the Fitth Regiment armory where a reception was held, in order to give the general public an opportunity to still further demonstrate the affection with which the 'pets' are held in Balti

After the reception, which lasted about two hours, the players were escorted to the Hotel Rennert, where a banquet wound up the festivities. At the banquet speeches were made by ex-Postmaster Johnson, City Solicitor Bryan, Manager Hanlon and others.

CLUB LAW IN NEW YORK.

Brutality to Citizens Who Offend the High and Mighty Police. New York, Oct. 3.-Chief Counsel Goff surprised the Lexow committee yesterday. He subpoensed all the members of the force who had been convicted of clubbing citizens during the past year, but who for some reason have retained positions on the force. There are nearly a hundred cases of this character, and almost all of the officers summoned were in attendance. One of the first officers who testified was Thomas Coleman, who had been called to explain his statements in connection with the alleged assault upon George Appo. The theory of the police and the testimony of the proprietor and the inmates of the hotel where Appo was injured is that Appo cut his own throat. Coleman was badly rattled at times during the examination.

The feature of the day was the testimony of the men accused of clubbing citizens. A son of Rev. Dr. John Hall, the Presbyterian divine, claimed that he had been forcibly ejected from a station house because he had gone there and protested against an assault by an officer upon an Italian fruit peddier. A Columbia college student told of the assaults that the policemen made upon the students while they were building bonfires in a vacant lot to celebrate one of their

Thomas Lucca said that he had asked Policeman Bernard Dunn if he had caught a thief who had stolen four dollars from him. By way of reply the policeman clubbed him, inflicting wounds on his head and requiring twenty-seven stitches to patch him up. When he reached the police station another policeman pummeled him in the face.

Policeman George Lair was accused of clubbing a woman and trying to tear her cheek by inserting his finger between her lips. Policeman William Rohrig acknowledged that he had broken a boy's jaw, but claimed that this particular case of clubbing was accidental.

One policeman who carelessly handled a revolver was fined twenty days pay, but was allowed to remain on the force, though it was admitted that the citizen who was injured died from his wounds.

Sea Captain Charged with Cruelty. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3 .- Jack Day, a student of Columbia college, New York, and J. H. Nicol, a student of the University of Pennsylvania, have arrived in San Francisco on the American ship Benjamin F. Packard. They went before the United States ship commissioner and told a story of alleged maltreatment at the bands of Captain Allen, to whom they said they had paid $100 each to be taken on board his ship as apprentices. They claim they were treated as common seamen before the mast, and in addition to this they were but half fed.

Killed in a Runaway.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 3 - George Miller, his wife and Miss Jessie Gabler were on their way to Sand Lake last evening, after spending the day in Troy shopping. In the suburbs the team became frightened at an electric car and ran away. Mr. Miller was thrown against a post and his skull cru-bed. He died soon afterwards. Mrs. Miller was seriously injured, and may die Miss Gabler received only a few scratches. Mr Miller recently moved from Newark, N. J., to Saud Lake, where he purchased a paper mill he was operat-

Double Tragedy in Illinois.

Mr. Vernon, Ills., Oct. 3.—Three miles south of here James Scott, a farmer, shot and instantly killed Littleton Hullet, an itinerant Methodist minister. Hullet had camped on Scott's farm on his way from near Centralia to Gallatin, and Scott ordered him to move on. Hullet refused and a hand-to-band conflict was waged. Hullet was shot twice, dying instantly, but first inflicting wounds on Scott with a club from which he died a few hours Serious Charge Against Martin Irons.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 3.-Martin Irons, whose name was made famous by the conspicuous part that its owner took in the great railroad strike of 1886, during which be occupied a place similar to that recently held by Eugene Debs in the strike in Chicago, is a prisoner in the county jail here. Irons is charged with having attempted to assault little 7-year-old Rosalia Estrada. The child's mother is the complainant in the case.

Evicted Tenants' Revenge.

DUBLIN, Oct. 3.-A sensation has been caused by the recent destruction of three houses built by the Marquis of Clanricarde, at Woodford, County Galway, Two of the houses were blown to pieces and the other was burned. ## WRECKED BY CYCLONE.

Fearful Work of the Wind and Rain at Little Rock.

SEVERAL KILLED AND INJURED.

The Main Portion of the Business Section of the City Practically in Ruins. Buildings Unroofed and Stocks Greatly Damaged by Water.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 3.-A terrible cyclone struck this city at 7:30 o'clock last evening, and almost devastated the business portion of the city. Several people are known to have been killed and injured, while it is feared scores of others have met the same fate. The main portion of the business center is practically in ruins, and the amount of damage is incalculable. The total property loss will probably approximate $500,000. The cyclone was accompanied by a terrific rain storm, and the stocks of goods in the business houses which were unroofed, though not otherwise wrecked, were destroyed by water. The storm struck the state penitentiary, which stands on a hill in the western part of the city, with fearful force, destroying the dining room, tearing down the sta ble and shops, unroofing the main cell building and demolishing the warden's office. Several of the convicts were seriously injured, one of whom died an hour afterwards.

Down town the lightning struck the Martin block, wrecking the third floor. A man named Eston was fatally injured there. The Tilles building was unroofed. and a part of the fourth floor of Gleason's hotel was blown away. At Main and Second streets the tops of several adjacent buildings were piled up in an indescribable heap.

The worst damage, however, was done to property on Markham and Commerce streets. Nearly every building in that district was uproofed, and many are totally wrecked. The large three story building at Market and Cumberland, occupied by the E. H. McCarthy company, is a total wreck, as is also the two story building on the opposite corner, occupied by Max Elkins as a saloon. The third story of the old Deming House was blown off, and the several stores under it were flooded by water and filled with debris. The large cotton warehouse, situated at Second and Scott, owned by J. H. Bacum, was wrecked. It fell on the Western Union Telegraph office, next door, and wrecked it, thus cutting off all telegraphic communication with outside points. The city was left in the densest darkness, and the streets are veritable streams of mud.

The streets are filled with tin roofs, electric wires and other wreckage, and it will be several days before the extent of the damage is known accurately. Rescuing parties are busy searching for the dead and wounded, but a list of casuaities is utterly unobtainable. Among those known to have been seriously and probably fatally wounded are C. P. Monroe, member of the Arkansas legislature, and - Eaton and Sam Smith, a prominent cotton buyer, is also badly injured. All kinds of rumors are affoat, one to the effect that the insane asylum, in which about 600 patients are confined, has been blown down and many patients injured, but the asylum is situated a distance from the city, and the rumor cannot be confirmed. A unmber of e-caped lunatics have been captured near the Union depot, and this fact gives color to the

Convent Scandal in Naples. Naples, Oct. 3 .- A convent scandal has for women, according to whether they do, or don't do, their washing in a sensible way. If they use Pearline, it means good, hard dollars saved.

Pearline is economy. All that ruinous rubbing that makes you buy linens and flannels twice as often as you need to, is spared, to say nothing of your time and labor.

See the troubles that women have to endure with other ways of washing. There's that hard, wearingout rub, rub, or the danger of ruining things with acids if you try to make it easy. Washing with Pearline is absolutely safe.

Send Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back.

WILSON TALKS.

It Name is Wilson; I do an insurance business on LaSalle street, in Chicago Ill., and I live in Evanston, Ill. Evanston is what was originally a scattering population on a pretty point on Lake Michigan, esteemed years ago far from the city of Chicago, but now one of the varied towns which may go within it by rote of the population

I am married and have a wife and one child. That child is a boy (I suppose I vote of the population. should feel the same solicitude if it was a girl), and I have a father's natural fancies should feel the same solicitude if it was a girl), and I have a father's natural fancies as to what must be the best thing to give that child the right kind of intelligence, and so divert his course that he may succeed in life. I have studied a great deal upon the subject. My own experience would not be of great value, because I have succeeded only to the limit of the average man and am barely established; still, I succeeded only to the limit of the average man and am barely established; still, I sometime own the house and lot upon which I live, and am feeling perfectly safe in meeting own the house of the year. I want the boy to take a broader view than I did, to be a bigger man in the world. I have studied how to teach him to do that, and he has done pretty well, as far as the preliminaries go. Now, I have thought over what I should say to him and have sometimes been puzzled. I could not very well tell him what to do. I wanted to tell him whatI needed but what I did not learn myself when I was of his age, and what my father did not know how to tell me, or else was not thoughtful enough to do so. I wanted to tell him how to follow the example of those who have succeeded at the present time and under the circumstances which ordinarily affect a young man struggling in this Republic established on this comor chose who have succeeded at the present time and under the circumstances which ordinarily affect a young man struggling in this Republic established on this comparatively new world to-day. I wanted to tell him just what he had better do to get along well, and to point out to him what had been done by the people who were

Of course, the record of the people of any time past would not be of so much value, because circumstances must necessarily have been different when they were successful at the present time. uc, because diffilling after the state of th

the people who are so successful to day have done and now they did it, I could give to my boy such advice as would make his own life at least as far removed from failure as justified by the natural ability he may possess,

I looked around for some authority which I might consult in order to give him the facts most essential with this idea of mine in mind, but I could find none until I discovered that a great publishing firm in Chicago had decided to being onto head. I-discovered that a great publishing firm in Chicago had decided to bring out a book giving the photographs of all the people who are prominent in America to-day. Here was what I wanted. The book, as I have learned, is going to be published in 16 was what I wanted. The book, as I have learned, is going to be published in 16 parts, 16 pages to each, with a recent photograph on each page of some active leading American man or woman of to-day, while underneath appears the story of that same person's life—the story telling what that person did, and how the ends attained were eventually accomplished. Here was what I wanted; here was what I needed in partons cave: here was what I was carriably seeking in order to obtain the inforin various ways; here was what I was certainly seeking in order to obtain the information with which to educate my boy ank secure for him that knowledge which will give him a source of thought and make him prominent in the world.

I have the first sheets of this work. It is a graphic story of America's Greatest Men and Women, told in each instance on a single page underneath a photograph of recent date, which conveys to the eye an idea of what that person is. To me the photograph tells even more than the suggestive record beneath; and yet it is odd how in each instance the correct story corresponds with the expression upon the face which is reproduced in the portrait above. I do not know how the series will end. I know very little about this new feature of the newspaper people; I know end. I know very fittle about this new feature of the newspaper people; I know nothing about the publishers and their expectations, but I do know this: that if the sories so begun should be continued to its practical, ordinary good sense end—and I don't care whether that will include 200 or 700 of America's Greatest Men and Women, which is the title of the book—I do know this, that for the ordinary, active and alert business man-I will certainly say far more for the student or the literary man, or the politician or the statesman—for all these I will say it will be simply the most valuable and the most remarkable book produced in modern history wonder is that some one has not thought of it before. Yet no one seems to have done so since the days of Plutarch. Plutarch knew something. That shrewd old fellow knew that all who would get out of the drift, all who would accomplish great things, wanted to know every detail of the lives of those who had better juck or more courage or a broader brain than their fellows; but I am no authority on these points. I only know that there is produced a second Plutarch's Lives, that its biographies are shrewd, graphic and curt, and written without bias and without prejudice. I only know that there was a Plutarch—God bless the old fellow—and that there is this modern work.

This is the work I am going to give to my boy. I am going to make him read it thoroughly. The work is announced as consisting of 16 Parts, with 16 pages and 16 photographs in each part, and when bound, the whole series will make a great volume of the like of ume of 256 pages, the like of which has never been equaled. It is the story of the personal character of the men and women who are making the nation's history at this particular time. What a work this is! Do you imagine that I would miss it for my boy, or, incidentally, for myself?

"So you decided not to move?"
"Not quite, dear. You see, I told the landlord that I was sorry to move, but we really couldn't afford a higher rent, and that I myself would gladly show the house to intending tenants. Then I set every room in order and waited."

"Some time ago" Yes, but I never could remember dates, and the people did die." "Well, did she"--

"Never went near. The bedrooms were too small for the next people, and the next ones were delighted, but thought the rent rather dear. Then I remarked that im-mediately after lunch I intended to run around and engage that lovely little house in the next square at a lower rent. They carelessly a-ked which house, and I noticed that they turned that corner."

"Well, you know, it was cheaper, and if they had taken our house I should have been obliged to rent that, for it was near enough to have my bric-a-brae carried."

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the temedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakming them and it is perfectly free from very objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

For Governor. DAVID BENNETT HILL. For Lieutenant-Governor,
DANIEL N. LOCKWOOD. For Judge of the Court of Appeals, WILLIAM J. GAYNOR.

Many prominent New Jersey Democrats attended a conference at Trenton, yesterday, at which arrangements were made for an active and aggressive campaign, which is to be entered on at once.

A Democratic campaign club, to be known as the Liberty Hill and Lock. wood Club, was organized in Liberty, last Saturday evening. The officers are Roger Sears, President; D. S. Hill, Vice-President, M. J. Flynn, Secretary, and L. C. Geiser, Corresponding Secretary.

It is a significant fact that the towns in Connecticut, which, on Monday, showed Republican gains at the town elections almost invariably voted for license, though many of them had been "dry" for years. This happened too often to be a mere coincidence and suggests a possible alliance of Republicanism with liquor, which "the party of great moral ideas" would once have scorned to

The Grace Democracy of New York city, yesterday, notified the Committee of Seventy, which is trying to. unite all anti-Tammany interests on a candidate for Mayor, that the candidate selected must be a Democrat or the organization would not give him its support. The Republicans are equally earnest in demanding the nomination of a Republican. The estimable gentlemen who have undertaken to secure reform in New York by lifting municipal affairs out of politics are finding that the ways of reformers are not ways of pleasantness.

The Shepard "Democracy" of Brooklyn voted, last night, not to support the Democratic State ticket-Shepard, the leader of these so-called Democrats, is an original anti-snapper, who has always posed as a warm friend and devoted adherent of President Cleveland. He now proposes to prove his friendship and his Democracy by helping the enemies of the President, of Democracy and of Democratic policy bring about Democratic defeat in the President's own State, and thus bring discredit on him and his administration. Many such friends as Mr. Shepard by the patriotism of Washington, the wisdom of Solomon and the state craft of Bismarck.

The address of the Democratic members of the Constitutional Convention to the voters of the State, which was made public, yesterday, criticises the Republican majority for its fallure to embody in the new constitution the anti-trust amendment which would have made impossible criminal combinations to increase the cost of the necessaries of life; for its disregard of the just demands of the labor interests of the State: for its non-fulfillment of its pledge to grant home rule to cities; for its subserviency to caucus dictation and its settled purpose to consider the interests of the Republican party as of more moment than those of the people of the State.

Naturally the address devotes special attention to the most odious feature of the convention's work, the caucus-made apportionment, which substitutes territorial representation for popular repregentation, and, as has truly been said, "makes acres not men the basis of representation in the State Legislature." The sole aim and purpose of the makers of the apportionment was to devise a scheme that would give the Republicans a majority in the Legislature, no matter how great might be their minority on the popular vote. How they propose to do this is thus told in the address: This plan postpones any new enumeration until 1905. It prevents any new apportionment until after 1905. It forecloses the future by prescribing impossible conditions even to the Legislature of 1996. public demand it increases the Senate from thirty-two to fifty and the Assembly from 128 to 150, at an increased annual expense approaching one hundred thousand dollars. It destroys the proportion of four to one between the Assembly and the Benate, which has existed since 1821. It creates fifteen Senate districts with a population greater than fifteen other districts by 459,672. It leaves unrepresented a population in Democratic districts of 131,287. It over represents Republican districts by 130,348. It thus makes a discrimmation against Democratic districts It permits 35,572 citizens in Republican districts, but requires at least 41,000 citizens in Democratic districts to elect an Assemblyman. It prescribes that 115,817 citizens shall be entitled to a Senator, but it affords to the Republican counties of Erie and Monroe an additional Senator by one-half that number. It refuses the Democratic counties of New York and of Kings an additional Senator for any number less than 115,-817. Should either the county of New York or of Kings be-come entitled by its increased population to additional senators, it can only gain such senators by an increase in the total number of the Senate, for the other districts of the State will still retain their quota of senators. It provides that New York shall never, no matter how JAS. P. TIGHE Commission Broker. Stern great its population, have more than Building, 15 North street, Middletown, N. Y. one-third of the senators. It provides that Kings shall never, no matter how great its population, have more than one-third of the senators. It provides that New York and Kings counties shall never, no matter how great their joint population, nave more than one-half of the senators. It fastens Republican rule on the State regardless of popular will, inasmuch as a majority of 75,000 in the State against the Republican party will not disturb its hold upon the Legislature. By providing that in New York and in Kings each senatorial district shall be within five hundred of the population of the ad-joining district, it seeks to prevent a new apportionment. The impracticability of this rule is confessed by the construction in this proposed apportlonment of two adjoining dis-

THE FRENCH-ENGLISH COMPLICATION

Meeting of the French Council Called-Views of London Papers-Effect on Markets-Lord Dufferln's Views, BY UNITED PRESS.

PARIS, Oct. 3 .- The French Cabinet has been summoned to meet concurrently with the British Ministerial Council, to-morrow.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Fall Mall Gazette says the meetings of the French-English Cabinets, which have been called for the same date, are to consider mutual proposals for the settlement of differences arising between the two nations.

The Globe assigns the condition of affairs in Madagascar and the grievance of England regarding Egypt as the cause of the meeting.

The Westminster Gozstte says that according to the Salisbury treaty of 1890, the French have the right to a protectorate over Madagascar, but adds that a protectorate differs from complete occupation.

The calling of Cabinet Councils by France and England imported a sudden impetus to the Liverpool grain market, to-day.

BELFAST, Oct. 3.-Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador to France, was interviewed, to-day. He says he is prepared to be recalled at any moment, but saw no reason for immediate alarm in the relations between Great Britain and France.

A CONFERENCE AT THE COUNCIL ROOMS, LAST NICHT.

But There Came Near Being No Conference for the Department Officers Had Not Been Invited-Discussing the Fire Parade-No Carriages and No Collation for the Mayor and Council-Firemen Say They Have No Money to

A special meeting of the Common Council was called by Mayor Stansbury for last evening, to confer with the Board of Engineers and officers of the several companies of the fire department, and "to have a little talk with them" with a view to adjusting any differences between the Council and the department which might interfere with the harmony which should prevail between the officials and the firemen.

At 8 o'clock sharp, there were present in the Council chamber the Mayor, President Dorrance, Aldermen Funnell, Bowler, Mance and Sinsabaugh, and two reporters. After the roll call, the Mayor announced the object of the meeting, but said that none of the invited guests seemed to be present.

Alderman Mance made a motion to adjourn, which was promptly seconded by his colleague from the Second Ward, Alderman Sinsabaugh. The motion was put and carried, and at five minutes past eight the meeting stood adjourned.

FIRE DEPLETMENT OFFICERS SENT FOR. During an informal talk with the reporters immediately after adjournment it was developed that no invitations or notices had been sent by the clerk to any of the officers of the fire department, and their absence was therefore easily explained.

An informal discussion then followed between the Aldermen and the reporters, and it was finally suggested that an effort be made to get the department officers together at once, and volunteers were sent out to corral them. Chief Thorpe was found in consultation with Assistant Higham at the latter's hotel, and Assistant Schmidt was found at his restaurant.

A CALL TO DUTY. They were willing to meet the Aldermen, and ascompanied the committee to the Corporation Rooms. They had barely entered the room when the fire bell rang, and it was then that their fealty to duty was clearly demonstrated. No matter what differences may exist between the firemen and the present Board of Aldermen, the former never swerve in their attention to duty when the call is sounded.

After the fire was extinguished the firemen and Aldermen reassembled. Foreman Schoonmaker and Assistant Edwards, of Excelsiors, and Foreman Dugan, of Eagles, had joined the Department officers and the in their truck house, and Ontarios first gun was fired by His Honor, the MAYOR STANSBURY TALKS. He stated that on Monday morning, the Chief had called upon him and had stated that the Board of Engineers and officers of the Department had decided to employ but one band, the Pioneer, and that each company had voted to contribute but $5 toward the expenses of the parade out of the $50 each would receive from the $359 appropriation.

This meant that no provision had been made for the usual carriages and collation for the Aldermen and Mayor, which had always been paid for out of this fund. The Mayor was astonished to think there was any feeling against the Board and thought that in conference the difficulties could be easily adjusted, and asked to hear from the Chief.

CHIEF THORPE EXPLAINS.

Chief Thorpe then explained to the Oouncil what the differences were, as he understood them. For a number of years past, each company of the department had received $100 for the expenses of an annual parade. With this money the companies had hired a band and had paid for a banquet, after being compelled to put their hands in their pockets for more money to meet expenses over and above the sum received from the city

This sum the present Council had seen fit to reduce one-half, and the firemen had decided to do away with the usual band expenses, hire one band for the whole department and use the balance of the appropriation for their usual banquets.

EXPLANATIONS FROM THE COUNCIL. Then followed explanations from the Mayor and Aldermen as to the reasons for reducing the appropriation. The Council had been given to understand that this was to be an "off year" in the department; that none of the companies expected to entertain a visiting company, and therefore as the budget was large it was decided to cut the amount in two for this year and next year,-well ther from the intention of the writer | they could not guarantee to double the amount, but thought that it might be done by the next board.

Remarks were made by Aldermen Greene and Mance, Foreman Schoonmaker, Assistant Edwards. Assistant Chief Higham and Foreman Dugan. The action of the firemen was deis altogether incapable of such abuse | fended by the speakers, who with of the prerogatives of his honorable one accord thought that the sum of $100 was little enough to receive as their yearly allowance, and that as the Aldermen had seen fit to economize they too had done the same

the Mayor and Board had received no invitation, either to ride or walk in the parade or to inspect the fire-

The chief arose and said that this was probably so; that he had not issued a written invitation, but thought that when he had appeare i before the Board, at a recent meeting, informing them of the date se-Spare-A Belated Invitation-Two lected by the Board of Engineers and Hours of Talk But Nothing Agreed officers he had given them to understand that their presence was de-

If it would be more pleasing to the Council he would now extend a verbal invitation to them to inspect the department. This was accepted by the Mayor in behalf of the Council and the meeting adjourned.

The conference lasted until 11 o'clock, but beyond airing the differences it can be said that little was accomplished.

The arrangements as already made by the engineers will in all probability be carried out. The firemen will parade with one band and the aldermen, should they decide to inspect the parade, will probably do so on foot, and should they decide to eat, drink and smoke on that occasion will, most likely, do so at their own expense.

THE FIREMEM'S PARADE.

The Programme for the Day—Positions in Line and Line of March.

To-morrow is firemen's parade day, and for the first time in many years the Middletown Fire Department will parade without a visiting company in the line. The following is the programme for the day:

At 1 p. m., at the Chief's three double taps, the companies will assemble at their respective houses.

At 1:30, Chief's call, companies will take position in line. At 2 o'clock the Board of Aldermen will inspect the companies, the parade starting immediately afterward.

POSITIONT IN LINE. Pioneer Band. Monhagen Hose Co. Eagle Hose Co. McQuold Engine Co. Prœ ix Engice Co. Ontari) Hose Co. Waalkill Engine Co. Excelsion Hook and Ladder Co.

HOW THE COMPANIES FORM. Monhagens form on North street, right lesting on Wickham avenue, and the other companies form on North street according to numbers. LINE OF MARCH.

North street to Wickham avenue, to West Main street, to South street, to Washington street, to Academy avenue, to East Main street, to North street, to Depot street, to James street, passing in review at the Russell, to West Main street and

McQuoids will hold a festival at the Assembly Rooms in the evening. Waalkills will hold a private ho

HYMENEAL.

Holly-Scott.

Robert W. Holly, a machinist in the employment of Galen Coleman. and Miss Carrie S. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Scott, of North street, this city, were married, last evening, at the residence of Rev. Dr. Darwood, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church.

The young couple will, for the present, reside with the mother of the groom, No. 4 Spring street.

PERSONAL,

-Postmaster Elwood, this moraing, received a letter from Mr. Thomas J. Lyon, fermerly of Port Jervis, who is a clerk in the Government Printing Office. He recently received a promotion and now holds a responsible position in the department.

-The friends of William H. Harrison, for several years lineman of the Postal Telegraph in this city, will be interested to learn that he recently occupied the pulpit of Centenary M. E. Church, New York, by invitation of the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. G. Oakley. Although Mr. Harrison is still in the employ of the Postal Company, he finds time to do considerable religlous work.

Big Blaze, Much Smoke, Little Dam-

At 9 o'clock, last evening, an alarm was sounded from box 37 at the condensery. Fire was discovered in the second story of James Langan's hotel Fulton street, between South and Canal streets. A burning mattress in a sleeping apartment made a big blaze and a great amount of amoke but was quickly extinguished without much damage. The fire occurred in rooms occupied by Mrs. Foley and is supposed to have started from her pipe, while she was smoking in bed.

Work Regun on the Coshen End of the Electric Road - A Public Meeting to Discuss the Trolley Franchise-A Successful Affair-Other Notes.

From our Regular Correspondent.

-The Middletown-Goshen Traction Company began work on the Goshen end of its line, yesterday morning, a force of men and several teams having been set at work on Ryerson's Hill. The men employed are residents of this village and since work on the road is to be pushed with vigor during the next two months its construction will be a blessing to many Goshen men who might otherwise be employed.

-At the meeting of the village trustees, Monday night, the Middletown-Goshen Traction company again made application for a franchise that would permit it to lay tracks on certain streets in the village. The trustees announce that a public meeting will be held at the corporation rooms, Monday evening, Oct, 22nd, at 7 o'clock, to give all interested an opportunity to be heard.

-The supper at St. John's Hall, last night, was largely attended and dancing was indulged in by the young people until the small hours of the morning.

-The public sale of tickets for the Goshen Vocal Society course will begin Oct. 10th at Mr. C. E. Millspaugh's dry goods store.

-A dancing class will be opened by Miss Kate Pope, of Nawburgh, at Purdy's Hall, Oct. 10th. -Danny Kiernan and Fred B.

Work Begun at the Goshen End of the Trolley Road-Pleasant Social Events -The Drunkard's "Providence" Still Watchful,

From a Special Correspondent.

-Work has been begun on the trolley road on the outskirts of this village and soon the electric cars will be dashing across the country. like the "jabber wock," of Alice in Wonderland fame, that "came whiffling through the tulgey wood and burbled as it came."

-Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gott gave a card party at their home in this vil- regular $1.50 quality. lage, last Monday evening.

—It is reported that 800 invitations have been issued by Rev. R. B. Clark and wife, for their crystal wedding, next Thursday evening.

-There has always been a saying that there is a providence that watches over drunken men and keeps them from harm. Just why this should be so, it is difficult to understand. Doubtless, it is one of those ways of providence that are past finding out, for they are not generally the most valuable portion of any community. Perhaps when the other gods and godesses of mythology were done away with, Bacchus remained behind to protect his votaries,-at any rate every one has known plenty of instances where the man under the influence of liquor has fallen down a steep place uninjured, while his sober brother will break a limb from a slight fall, Fresh proof of this theory is furnished in the case of the Minnesota man who recently drove a party consisting of his wife, sister-in-law and five children, to a fair in his neighborhood. While there, he became intoxicated and on his return journey, drove so furiously that a passer by stopped him, when he was within a block of the river and remonstrated with him. He promised amendment. but upon being released, he lashed his horses and drove them down the etreet, over the ferryboat right into the river. The only one of the party rescued was the drunken man; the seven sober members of the party being all drowned. This instance is enough to destroy the influence of several temperance lectures for, while to be drunk is degrading, of what use is our respectability to us if we are all drowned?

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, crecept sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable "zone feeling in my stomach. Physicians sand if was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoing a year and a hair steedily, but with no puticular honefor, when I saw an advertisement of Dr Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and hegan using it. Marvelous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained to pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 137. Four others have used Dr Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and has been as stusfactory in the lighest as as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O.

Interesting Career of Communder In Cnlef

Lawler of the Grand Army. Colonel Thomas G. Lawler, the new commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, is an Englishman by birth and a thorough American by training. He first saw the light of day in Liverpool 50 years ago, but has lived nearly all his life in Rockford, Ills. His parents were poor, and he was hard at work as a boy of 17 when the war began. He promptly went to the front with the Nineteenth Illinois infantry and served throughout the war, participating in all the battles of his regiment. General Rosecrans complimented him for his bravery, and he was mustered out as sergeant brevet captain.

After the war Lawler organized the Rockville rifles and served 12 years in the national guard, rising to the rank of colonel. He joined the G A. R. in 1866, soon after it was organized, and for 26 years has been post commander of Nevius post No. 1, which, although not the first post organized, is now the oldest one in existence. Lawler is such an enthusiastic member of the G. A. R. that it is said he has missed but one post meeting in a quarter of a century. His term of service as post commander is also without an equal in the history of the Grand Army. He has also served as department commander of the order in Illinois. The occasion of his twentyfifth anniversary as post commander was made quite an event in Grand Army circles, and he was presented with a diamond medal in honor of his long service.

He is not only popular in Grand Army circles, but at home as well, a fact that is demonstrated by his 12 years of service as postmaster of Rockford. Colonel Lawler was a close friend and confidant of General John A. Logan, whom he closely resembles in appearance, it is said. He has been frequently spoken of as a promising candidate for governor of Illinois on the Republican ticket.

Every one in Oakland was amused by the odd error—that is, every one but Albert. The brothers are twins who look so much alike that their mother cannot tell them apart, and it is further alleged that when Albert and Herbert look in the mirror each sometimes wonders which one of the twins he is. Not long ago Albert, who is an ambitious young politician, concluded that he would enjoy running for county clerk on the Prohibition ticket. He placed himself of the said to the company of the said company of the s ty, Cal., never mix anything if they can convention met.

Then Albert did a very foolish thing. Unmindful of the fact that his twin brother was at large in Oakland, he went to Fresno on business, leaving his friends to look after his political fences. When convention day came, Albert was still in Fresno, and Herbert, who was ignorant of his brother's political aspirations, strolled into the convention hall, where, to his surpirse, he met with a very enthusiastic reception. Albert's

He was still more agreeably surprised a few moments later when the convention nominated him for county clerk without a dissenting vote. He was called upon for a speech and greatly surprised his brother's friends by carnestly declaring that the honor was a great surprise to

The convention adjourned without discovering that Herbert was not Albert, and two days passed before Herbert learned that he had captured a nomination intended for Albert. He will run for county clark, however, and expects to profit by Albert's popularity on election day. One of the greatest jobes connected with the affair occurred when one of Athert's friends made profuse apologies to Albert, as he supposed, only to learn later that the apologies had been made to Herbert.

True Story of Boston Life Related by a Redeli. re College Girl.

The car was crowded when I reached it, and there was only one vacant seat in the front, which I was glad to occupy. Just as I settled back, with a sigh of satisfaction, even before I had a chance to become curious about my neighbor, I heard from the rear of the car a baby's fretful cry and a wearied mother's voice trying to soothe the tired child. Mingled with these sounds came a second mother's tone, drawling but complacent.

"Ned," she said, "hear that poor little sing try. Ned is a dood baby. He never cries!"

Of course my curiosity was aroused, and I turned to see the rival babies and their mammas. The fussy little one was in full sight. One rosy cheek rested on the shoulder of a neat but travel stained little woman. The pretty, baby blue eyes were filled with tears, the chubby little fellow was sucking his thumb and doing his best to go to sleep, but the time and the place were against him. The patient, dark eyes of the mother rested lovingly on the sweet, troubled face of her boy as she rocked him softly in her arms.

All this I saw in a moment, and I then tried to look beyond this interesting mother and her natural boy to that wonderful baby that never cried and to his proud parent. I could not see them, however, because the restless little head hid them from me, but every now and then there came to my ear the hush of one voice, followed by the proud tone of the other.

At last the train stopped with one of these backing, bumping motions with which we are all familiar. Then the terrified scream of the thoroughly aroused baby made the nervous mother hasten to leave the car as quickly as possible. Following her and close behind her was a fat woman, with wrinkles in the back of her neck and a large, showy hat. She lifted her buby up with one jeweled hand, and as she kissed him on the pug nose drawled out: "Ned's a dood boy. Ned's mamma's own sweet, precious doggie."-Boston Globe.

BEWARE OF FRESH OLIVES. How a California Planter Amuses Himself

at the Expense of Innocent Travelers. Eastern visitors in California are always much interested in the olive plantations which, in recent years, have become a feature of the most southerly counties of the state. The lovers of the succulent fruit when pickled and bottled for sale in the east and north are always anxious to taste the olive fresh and ripe. There is a popular impression that it is sweet and delicious; but, like a delusion and a spare. A few miles south of San Drego, where the railroad makes a junction with a small one track road leading into Mexico, a large planter has taken advantage of this delusion for his own amusement. On the arm al of each train from the north numerous travelers dis-Combines every element of mount to wait the starting of the train across the Mexican border. For their benefit the planter has nailed a box outside of his fence just across the way mount to wait the starting of the train from the railroad station which he lace filled with nice, ripe olives. A placard invites victims in these words:

TINE, TRESH, RIPE OLIVES, HELP YOURSELF.

Of course there is a rush from the station as soon as the box and its contents are discovered, and swarms of innocents seize the pretty fruit and dig tacir teeth into it. Then there is a combined howl and a great deal of expectoration and disgust, for the delusive fruit are nearly as puckery as persimmons. And the planter? Oh, he takes his fun from a partly hidden summer house within his grounds, where he occasionally seats himself to enjoy the spectacle. It is a sure cure for the blues, he says. -New York Herald.

Chicken on the Shell.

In a certain rather pretentious but cheap priced restaurant I witnessed a scene which, though funny enough to the outside onlooker, could not but have been extremely mortifying to the proprietor. The proprietor was also the cook, and he was engaged in industriously frying a number of pancakes on a griddle placed for show in the window when a party of three who had just entered ordered a trio of eggs apiece. The proprietor thereat seized nine of the ovids from a box beneath the counter and began to break them one after another upon the griddle. He had reached the eighth egg when, lo and behold! instead of a yolk and albumen spreading itself temptingly into view, came a small confused mass of feathers, minute claws, a beak, etc. A look of horror spread itself over the man's face as he gazed at the unwelcome apparition, and then gazing over his shoulder and seeing that his action was unnoticed he swept the griddle clear of its offending burden, greased it anew and proceeded with his work. O cookery, how many frauds are practiced in thy name!—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

A Call For Volunteers to Go to the Long Lost Babytonians In It. That the crust of the earth is formed in layers no one will dispute, and that all substance on the surface of the earth is drawn by some force toward the earth's center is a pundeniable. This is called centripetal force. To admit the existence of this force is equal to the admission of a counteracting force called centrifugal. According to every experiment and all philosophical reasoning, there must be a line of equilibrium drawn somewhere between the center and the circumference of the earth. The exact location of this line will always be determined by the motion of the earth. It is on this line that the external and the internal forces meet in deadly conflict, striving for gravitatious power and the enforcement of their laws. The friction produced by these two forces must be the source of all internal heat and the eternal fire. It is these two opposing forces that form and sustain the immense balance wheel called "the earth," which is 25,-000 miles in circumference, but cannot exceed 200 miles in thickness, including the lava belt in the center.

The irregular motion of the earth will change the central line of gravity and cause an eruption of lava either external or internal. The earth when viewed as a whole is a unit, and so are the laws which operate it, whether applied to the external or the internal surface.

The law which reverses gravitation on this equalizing line has given us two earths in one, or a world within a world. The friction and heat of the earth at the equator are so much greater than they are at the poles that the law of slectric equilibrium will produce an electric current to meet the demand for light and hear.

This internal earth is a counterpart of the external in all things, except its Atlantic and Pacific are not quite so vast, and its Nile and its Amazon are not quite so long. Neither is its equator nor its zones nor its poles quite so high. Nature, with an impartial hand, has withheld no good thing from this new world that can be ta-ted of by any other. Humanity here is as far removed from Darwin as Darwin is removed from the chosen seed of Adam's race.

AMUSING THE QUEEN.

How Maids of Honor Are Selected and Some of Their Duties.

Maids of honor are chosen by the queen herself from among the daughters of peers, who, if not themselves connected with the royal household, are personal friends of her majesty. A letter is always sout to the parents of the young lady requesting that as a personal favor to the queen she may be permitted to attend at court. As the position is undemable and the salary is £300 a year, the request is invariably accepted, and the newly chosen maid receives from the lord caumberlain the command for her first "wait."

The first thing brought to the maid of honor is her badge, which is a miniature picture of the queen set in brilhants and hung from a ribbon. Just before the dinner hour the maid of honor in waiting has to stand in the corridor outside the queen's private apartments. She carries a bonquet, which on entering the dining room she lays at the right hand of the queen's plate.

The maid of honor sits at dinner next to the gentleman on the queen's right. This rule is, however, relaxed when royal guests are present. After dinner, unless otherwise commanded, the maid of hazor retires to her own room, whence however, she is frequently called to read, sing, play the piano or take a hand at cards

As regards this last, the household have always to be provided with freshly coined money, for the queen is not supposed to handle money which has ever been in circulation. - New York Advertiser.

Farmers Disgusted With the Dutchess County Fair-A Suggestion to the Traction Company-Bronson Howard as a Playwright

The Dutchess County Fair was a financial success, but in all other respects it is said to have been a failure. The exhibit of agricultural products was so small as to be farcical, and the show of horses and cattle, though of good quality, was small in point of numbers. In their eagerness to make money and to help out the entertainment of the crowds of visitors the management allowed all kinds of side shows, catch penny devices and gambling games on the grounds. The exhibitions given by the Nautch dancing girls were especially objectionable, and brought | ber of the Denton Presbyterian down on the management the wrath of all the women and of all the good people who attended the fair. The dances, gross and indecent as they were, attracted many spectators, and there are people bold enough to say that the dances were the one thing that saved the fair from being flat, stale and stupid, from dismal, dreary lack of interesting features. The Zarmers of the county are disgusted with the result of their alliance with the Poughkeepsie boomers, who promised to rejuvenate the agricultural society and make of its fairs greater exhibitions than those of the State Society. It is now proposed by the agriculturists to go back to Washington Hollow and hold agricultural fairs, such as they used to hold before they listened to the alduring promises of the Poughkeepsie spellbinders.

The Traction Company's treasury would have been richer by a great many nickels if cars for the dif-Terent; parts of town had been in waiting in front of the Casino at the conclusion of the performsance, Tuesday night. Idon't want to seem anxious to help manage the electric road, but I'm very sure that the railroad company would consult its own interests and the comfort and -convenience of the public, if on nights when there are large audionces at the Casino, it would make its schedule elastic enough to have cars for the different parts of town in front of the Casino at the close of the performance.

Bronson Howard, the author of "Young Mrs. Winthrop," which comes to the Casino, next Saturday evening, is the author of those great successes, "The Henrietta," "Shenandoah" and "Aristocracy." No other living playwright can lay bet | in the Otisville Cemetery. fer claim to the title of foremost American playwright than Mr. Howard. He has never had what may be called a flat failure, and so | Can Middletown Be Made many of his plays have scored international reputations that they amply compensate for his other attempts. Not for this reason alone, though, should he be entitled to the distinction his admirers claim for him. His plays are all distinctly American. in flavor, characterization, humor, scene and local 'coloring and last, but far from least, in the cleanliness and honesty of their purpose.

Arthur Pinero, that brilliant English writer of plays, whose "Second Mrs. Tanquerary" is typical of the tendency of the English playwright towards the erotic in stage literature tries to explain the alleged necessity for descending to the dissection of the vices of society by making his cynical man of the world, Cayley Drummle, advance the theory that the young woman with the spotless white robe is not fit to take care of herself in the world. "Don't stain the frock," he says, "but before a woman is truly a woman she must have accumulated just so much dirt along the lower edges of her dainty muslin skirt." Such is the theory of these fin de siecle writers. A pure woman is not fit to grace society. She need not be grossly impure but Bbsolute purity is out of the question

There is no such tendency is Bronson Howard's plays. They teach a strong moral lesson without preaching; they instill the idea of the beauty of purity without unnecessarily urging the point. It is not by eloquent appeals to the gallery, not by bombastic phrases or exaggerated em-Thasis of the villain's wrong doings Eathe achieves this object, but by the beauty of his drawing of the feminine characters in his plays, by the clean, wholesome tone, the deli-. caterefinement with which he surrounds his imaginary people, by the vigor of his manhood, the tenderness of his pathos, the refreshing quality of his humor. Such a play is "Young Mrs. Winthrop."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Charles M. Robertson.

Mrs. Jennie B. Rverson, wife of Mr. Charles M. Robertson, a creameryman of Hamden, Delaware county, died at 6:30 o'clock, last evening, at the home of her father, Mr. Amos M. Ryerson, in Denton, in her fortysecond year. The cause of death was malerial fever. She was sick seven weeks.

The family had arranged to move from Hamden to Poyntelle, Wayne county, Pa., and the household goods had been shipped, when she was taken sick and came to her old home at Denton. She grew steadily worse, and for a week before her death was unconscious most of the time.

Mrs. Robertson was born in Glenwood, and was the oldest of a family of ten children. Most of her life was spent in Denton. She was married fourteen years ago. She was a mem-Church, having united with it when

Rev. George H. Hick was its pastor. Mrs, Robertson is survived by her husband and by a son, Amos V., aged about twelve years. She is also survived by her parents and by seven brothers and sisters: John, Richard V. and George H., of Denton; Catherine, wife of Herman Caskey, of Dolsontown; Amos M., of New York city; Susan A., wife of William D. Canfield, of Slate Hill, and Lizzie H., wife of Eiroy Giveans, of Middle-

THE DROWNING AT PORT GRANGE How Thomas Kiernan and His Grandson Lost Their Lives.

Mr. P. H. McShane, who returned, last evening, from Port Orange, gives the following details as to the manner in which his brother-in-law, Thomas Kiernan, and the latter's grandson, Tommy Shields, lost their lives by drowning, yesterday:

They had started to drive the cows to pasture, going along the tow path of the canal. Mr. Kiernan had gone ahead and happening to look back saw two cows fighting. The boy tried to separate them and was pushed into the canal. Mr. Kiernan ran to the spot and, although he could not swim, plunged in to rescue the boy. The latter's lather saw what had happened from the house and running to where the man and boy were struggling in the water, was able, after an effort in which he wes completely exhausted, to get them ashore, but not until after life was

The funerals of both victims of this sad affair will be held, to-morrow at 9:30 a.m., with a requiem high mass, at the Church of the Holy Name, Otisville, at 11 o'clock. Interment Reeve's farm was reached the dogs attacked one of his cows, biting it about the head and legs and tearing a long gash in her bag. The young men made no attempt to call off the dogs, and had not members of Mr. Reeve's family driven them away they might have killed the cow.

Mr. Reeve thinks some one should pay him for the loss he will sustain because of the wounds inflicted on the cow. The owner of the dogs, whom he has ascertained to be Sid Brown, of South street, is irresponsible and Mr. Reeve proposes to ascertain if the law for the protection of sheep is not broad enough to also protect cattle, and if there is not some way by which Middletown can be made to pay for damage done by the worthless cure, the keeping of which it encourages by exempting | The Board of Directors Chooses Offithem from taxation.

A Baby's Life Saved.

WALTON, N. Y., April 14, 1894 .-When my baby was six months old she was taken very badly with diarrhæs. A doctor came every day for a week. Baby got worse, until she could notice nothing at all. I got so worried I called on our druggists and he recommended Dr. Hand's Diarrhoa Mixture. I got it and just one-half a bottle cured my baby and saved her life.

HOW TO CLOTHE CHILDREN.

A PROBLEM THAT MAKES MOTHERS STUDY.

A Minister's Wife Who Dresses Her Family in Excellent Taste-How a Small Income Went a Long Way.

The puckers in many a mother's forehead are deepened as she studies how to dress her boys and girls in a respectable manner on the small amount that is available.

A minister's wife in a small town near Middletown was confronted by this discouraging situation, but her woman's wit and a few ten cent packages of diamond dyessolved the problem, and handsome clothes were soon evolved from a pile of odds and

The Home, Housekeeper, Ladies' Home Companion, and other household papers have published many articles telling how to use diamond dyes in making new clothing out of old. Pretty dresses, handsome cloaks, serviceable stockings, and gay hat ribbons and feathers are obtained at but little expense, not only for the children but for the mothers as well.

The ease with which diamond dyes are used is really surprising. They make beautiful colors that never creek and are non-fading. "While there are other package dyes, there are none so easily used, nor such fast colors" says Jean Hunt in a recent number of The Home. "I have tried other dyes, but the diamond color the most goods. Their fast stocking black is the only black dye for cotton I have ever found that makes a fast black which never turns grey when washed.,

WEEKS NOT GUILTY OF ASSAULT.

The Jury Wanted Him Reprimanded, but the gRecorder Disregarded Their

The jury in the Duryea-Weeks assault case brought in a verdict declaring Weeks not guilty of the charge of assault preferred by Duryea. The verdict was in writing and with it was coupled a request that the Recorder administer a reprimand to Weeks and admonish him not to use his cane in a like manner again. In discharging Weeks, the Recorder told him that he was extremely fortunate in having a jury trial, for had the case been tried before the court, he would have found him guilty. He refused to reprimand Weeks, as requested by the jury, since it had declared him innocent and he could not reprimand an innocent man.

The trial attracted a great many spectators and during the whole afternoon, the stuffy little apartment which does duty as a court room was crowded with interested listeners.

Their counsel, W. B. Royce, Esq., moved for their discharge on the ground that as the horse had died near Florida the Recorder had no jurisdiction in the matter. The motion was denied and the hearing was begun, but shortly afterwards, Alton J. Vail, Esq., counsel for Mr. Donovan, asked permission from the Recorder to withdraw the complaint. This was granted and the young men were discharged. As they started to leave the room, Sheriff Alexander, who was present, stepped up and served upon each of them an order of arrest in a civil action to recover the value of the horse. The bonds in the action were placed at $500

PORT JERVIS'S SMALL-POX EPIDEMIC

Two New Cases—The Opera House Ordered Closed-Wild Rumors,

Two additional cases of small-pox were reported to the Port Jervis Board of Health, yesterday, making eleven in all. The new cases are in houses in which there had been other cases of the disease. The patients are to be removed to the pest hcuse.

Mr. George Lea, manager of the Port Jervis opera house, was notified, to-day, by the Board of Health to bill no shows in Port Jervis on account of the small-pox epidemic.

Stories are current, on the strength of statments made by parties who have visited Port Jervis, that the number of cases of small-pox there is very much greater than the number reported by the health authorities. We were assured, however, this afternoon, by a reliable Port Jervis gentleman that only eleven cases have been reported to the health authorities.
